Issue 13, Week 3, Term 2

Nau mai, haere mai ki te Kura o Otari

Immersion Strand Whānau Hui is on Wednesday 23 May in Kaikomako. Shared Kai from 5.30pm, Hui at 6.00pm.

NZ Playhouse will be performing 'Red Riding Robyn Hood' on 24 July. The cost is $5 per child. A lot of parents have already paid $5 for the cancelled school picnic. That money will be transferred to this show. You will get a statement today if you have payments outstanding.

Chocolate was sent home yesterday ($2 each bar, $72 per box). There is plenty more available to sell, if you are able to.

Entertainment Books are available from the school office or a digital version is available. Check the following website: www.entertainmentbook.co.nz/about/flickbook/wellington.

Te Taonga Horomata: Whakaaro Nui. Virtue: Thoughtfulness

Thoughtfulness is kindness guided by empathy. It is carefully considering a course of action with discernment and honesty. It is giving importance to other people's needs. We think about them, observe what they need and offer our help. We pay careful attention to their likes and dislikes and do things that give them happiness.

'Never get tired of doing little things for others. Sometimes those little things occupy the biggest part of their hearts.'
