Issue 6, Week 7, Term 1

Kia ora koutou

Athletic Sports Postponement - We have decided it would be wise, given the weather forecast for tomorrow, to postpone the athletic sports until Wednesday of next week (23 March). If it is raining next week we will not be having athletic sports this term and will most likely hold the event in the fourth term. This is when the Western Zone and Wellington Zone events are held.

Student Council - The Student Council help organise events throughout the year. They also come up with ideas for fundraising, enhancing the school playground experience and supporting inter-strand activities. This year the Otari Student Council members are:

Alice Thompson	Te Okanga Huata-Wagner	Jack Moyer
Max Coram	Maarie Apanui-Barr	Nuku Phillips
Emma Pillay	Ariana Te Awa-Douglas	Xavier Hemopo-Tarawhiti
William Thompson	Kereama Hape	Benjamin Martin

Thank you to all the children who stood for Student Council.

"Keeping You in the Loop"

A weekly update of news, events and activities:

- Ngaio, Totara and Tui classes listened to a very informative and interesting talk from Adrian Wagner about the Treaty of Waitangi. Adrian provided context through recounting historical events that led to the treaty. Adrian is a parent in Tui class and BoT member.
- Yesterday the children from all classes enjoyed an entertaining presentation from author and illustrator, Bruce Potter.
- Today Enviro-school students are visiting Otari-Wilton bush with Britta to learn more about sustainable practice.
- The year 3 Sports Festival is happening today at Marsden College.
- This Thursday is the last day of technology until term 3.
- Today three teacher aides, Sandi, Alison and Paula, and two of our learning support/special needs teachers, Kathy and Sue, are at a "Storymaker" course. Storymaker is a programme used at Otari School to assist with literacy learning. It has recently been updated.

Scholastic Books - Scholastic have advised that they are having unexpected technical issues and have a big back-log of orders. Books will hopefully be delivered shortly. Due to this hold-up they are not sending out the next booklets until term 2.

Learning Goal Interviews begin next week. Interview times are booked online (www.schoolinterviews.co.nz). The school code is qcm3g. If you are unable to use the website call Jillian (475-3018) and she will book a time for you.

Tuesday Book Bonanza - Last year we culled books from our collection that we felt were no longer appropriate for our current library use. These books will now be available for parents and students of our school to have for koha, every Tuesday after school this term, weather permitting. Please come along and browse. Hilary and Johanne
